Student Code of Conduct

Students agree

- To treat all students and Stonyhurst staff equally, with respect and courteously.
- Not to damage, vandalise or graffiti any Stonyhurst property, or the property of any Stonyhurst students or staff.
- To follow instructions given by Stonyhurst staff.
- Attend all lessons and activities.
- Not to leave the school unless a member of Stonyhurst staff says it is OK.
- Not to be in the hallway, bedroom or bathroom of a member of the opposite sex.
- Not to have a weapon of any kind.
- Not have or use alcohol or tobacco. Please note that it is illegal in the United Kingdom to purchase or consume alcohol and / or tobacco under the age of 18.
- Not to have any drugs.
- Not to bully any other student, physically, verbally or emotionally. Stonyhurst will not allow any discrimination based on race, religion, gender or sexual orientation.

Students should:

- remember some people might not understand what you say or do.
- speak to a teacher, activity leader, manager or another adult if you have a problem with another student or if you know someone is not being nice to another person
- remember we will always help you.

Students should not:

- Make anyone feel sad or unhappy.
- Go anywhere without asking someone if it is ok.
- Use a mobile phone when you are not allowed.

Sanctions

The Language School wishes to provide a safe and welcoming environment for students. The rules are for the benefit of all, and we would not allow any individual to spoil the enjoyment of others.

- a. For minor problems a student would be warned about behaviour and parents would be informed if it was repeated.
- b. For more serious offences or if the student refuses to stop the misbehaviour after being warned, parents would be contacted and the situation discussed. There are a number of options at the discretion of the Course Director:

- i. Suspension from classes, activities and/or excursion. This would be for a short period and the student would be supervised on his/her own.
- ii. A final warning and a contract of behaviour acceptable to the parents and the Course Director. If this proved unsuccessful, the student would have to leave the Language School at the parents' expense.
- iii. If the offence was one of the more serious, it is possible that there would be immediate exclusion and the student would be sent home at the parents' expense.
